ATCO Gas donation adds energy to Clive fitness park project

Edmonton, AB. — Local fundraising efforts in support of Clive’s Walking Trails and Fitness Park Project received a $1,000 boost today from ATCO Gas.

“We are pleased to support projects that not only enrich the quality of life of the communities we serve but also enhance community spirit and strength,” says Brian Hahn, president of ATCO Gas. “ATCO’s contribution towards the multi-phase project will provide our customers and local employees new opportunities to lead active, healthy lives as well as learn about local history.”

Mayor Anita Gillard and members of the Clive and Area Cultural Historical Foundation met at the Village Office this afternoon to accept ATCO Gas’ donation. “The Fitness Park is an exciting project for us and this donation will go a long way in seeing it get developed.” says Louise Bell, President of the Clive and Area Historical Foundation. “I wish to thank ATCO Gas for their generous contribution today,”

The Fitness Park will be completed this summer and feature exercise stations built alongside the recently developed Legacy Walking Trail. Each exercise station will include specialized outdoor exercise equipment made to withstand the changing seasons and outdoor climate. Located in a public park and accessible all year round, residents of all ages, capabilities, physical or financial abilities, can incorporate the equipment and walking trails in their plans for a healthy active lifestyle.
